Sledding Safety Tips

Sledding can be a great way to enjoy winter weather. The joy of speeding down the hill makes it easy to forget that this activity can also lead to injuries. Taking a few safety measures can help keep you and your kids safe on the hills this winter.

- Avoid sledding in areas with trees, fences, and light poles or on rocky hills.
- Teach children to have an adult with them when they go sledding.
- Always go down the hill feet first.
- Learn how to stop and turn the sled by using your feet.
- Have only the recommended number of passengers on a sled at one time.
- Do not sled in the street or on a highway.
- Never ride a sled being pulled by a car, ATV, snowmobile, or other motorized vehicle.
- Avoid sledding on driveways, hills, or slopes that end in a street, drop off, parking lot, river, or pond.
- It is easier to see when you sled during the day. If you are going to sled at night, make sure the hill is well lit and that it is easy to see any potential hazards

QPR Training for Suicide Prevention

Did you know that each day 122 people die in the U.S. by suicide? Unfortunately, because of stigma and fears surrounding suicide, it is rarely spoken about. Through QPR Training, the Bucks County Suicide Prevention Task Force has set out to end that stigma and educate teens and their parents in the hopes of preventing such tragedies. QPR, which stands for Question, Persuade, Refer, is a free, 2-hour training that helps teens and their parents/guardians to understand and recognize a mental health crisis. By learning QPR, you will come to recognize the warning signs, clues, and suicidal communications of people in trouble and gain the skills to act vigorously to prevent a possible tragedy. The more people trained - the more lives saved. Registration is required for this program.

Shared Use Trails

Understanding Shared-Use Trail Etiquette can make trails more enjoyable for everyone, it's important that you understand trail etiquette. Follow these steps:

Respect other users; expect other users. Show courtesy. Respect wildlife. Respect public & private property. Leave no trace.

Be friendly and courteous. Greet other folks with a simple "Hello!" or "Nice day today!"

Bicyclists should yield to everyone. Runners yield to walkers. Downhill traffic yield to uphill traffic. When in doubt, give other users the right of way.

Announce yourself when approaching others, especially from behind. If you're in a group, avoid blocking the trail.

Stay on the trail. Creating your own path or cutting switchbacks creates erosion, damages habitat and natural resources.

Operate within your ability at all times. Remember that situations can get out-of-control fast if you're not attentive!

Be considerate, keep dogs leashed and under control at all times. Other trail users don't know your dog is friendly.

Bring water, snacks, maps and other equipment you may need. Know where you're going, and tell someone else your plan.

Create a Monarch Habitat

Monarchs cannot survive without milkweed; their caterpillars only eat milkweed plants, and monarch butterflies need milkweed to lay their eggs. With shifting land management practices, we have lost much milkweed from the landscape.

Adult monarchs will drink the nectar of many flowers in addition to milkweed; in fact they need sources of nectar to nourish them throughout the entire growing season. Include a variety of native flowering species with different bloom times to provide monarchs with the food they need to reproduce in the spring and summer and to migrate in the fall. Offering a wide array of native nectar plants will attract monarchs and many other butterflies and pollinators to your habitat all season long.

Planting milkweed is a great way to help other pollinators too, as they provide valuable nectar resources to a diverse suite of butterflies and bees. Additional information is available at,

Central Park 9-Hole Disc Golf Course

Did you know that disc golf is recognized as one of the fastest growing sports.

Played a lot like traditional golf but instead of a ball and clubs, players use a disc. Invented in the 1970's, disc golf is similar to traditional golf.. with participants trying to complete each hole in the fewest number of strokes or "throws". The disc is thrown from the tee area to a target (the hole) which is the typically an elevated metal basket. After a player throws down the fairway, the next shot is taken from the spot where the previous throw has landed. Trees and other natural landmarks located in and around fairways make the game more challenging. When the putt lands in the basket the hole is completed. The more you play the more fun it becomes.

Five Reasons to Try Disc Golf

- It's Essentially Free Once You Have Your Disc Golf Equipment
- It's More Fun Than You Probably Assume
- You'll Have a Network of New Friends
- It's Surprisingly Good for Your Health
- It's Super Easy to Learn

Stop by DTOWN Disc Golf for supplies and to learn more about this fun sport.

(next to the tennis courts)

The Doylestown Township Board of Supervisors are excited to announce plans for the Township's Community Recreation Center. The Community and Recreation Center will be situated next to the Township Building where the current courts are located. Currently, the Township has no indoor public recreation facility. The new facility will include a large multi-purpose rooms (that can be divided), a gym and a unique indoor/outdoor patio that overlooks Central Park.

The project also includes replacing the nearly 30-year old existing courts with new tennis, basketball, pickle ball courts and refurbishing the bocce courts. Bathrooms are proposed to be located between Kids Castle and the C&N Amphitheater,

To date $1.5 million has been received in grants toward the project with additional capital outreach to take place.
