Doylestown Community Performing Arts Series

Since 1995, Doylestown Township has hosted the annual Sounds of Summer Performing Arts Series providing free family-friendly entertainment and sponsor exposure to thousands of residents and visitors annually. With nearly 250 performances, the "Thompson Performing Arts Series" has become a sought out regional destination.

Over the years, the Performing Arts Series has featured professional and amateur talent of local, regional, national, and even international performances. A wide variety of styles have been represented including, musical genres, theater, dance, magic, comedy, etc. The goal has always been to present the best possible opportunity for enrichment, arts appreciation and fun for our hard-working community.

As a business in a competitive marketplace, your donation will compliment your commitment to our wonderful community. As an individual, your support speaks directly to the sense of community we have in Doylestown Township. Your tax deductible gift helps to ensure the continuation of this annual community favorite and also showcases your company's name to more than 6,000 households and 10,000 concert goers from the local and regional community. It's your enthusiasm, support and partnership that ensures success.

We are immensely appreciative of our businesses and individual partners throughout the community that support this awesome series. We hope you'll join us in support of this annual performing arts series as we celebrate free music and arts in the park.

Thank you!
